ETKİNİZ GUIDELINES

FOR THE

REQUEST FOR SUPPORT

CONTENTS

1. Human Rights Monitoring

ETKİNİZ EU Programme aims to strengthen the role of civil society organizations (CSOs) in the protection and promotion of human rights[1] by improving their ability to monitor and advocate for compliance with international human rights standards. International Human Rights Normative Framework lays down obligations that states are bound to respect, protect and fulfil. This framework includes treaties (covenants, conventions, protocols) ratified within a system of intergovernmental/interstate organisations such as United Nations (UN) and Council of Europe (CoE), jurisprudence and general comments of treaty monitoring bodies, declarations and resolutions accepted within these intergovernmental systems, reports of experts from United Nations (UN) special procedures and Council of Europe (CoE) organs.

> WHAT IS HUMAN RIGHTS MONITORING?
> Human Rights Monitoring comprises (1) gathering, (2) verifying and (3) using information on Human Rights for advocacy to improve the situation of human rights

Within the scope of the programme, we will provide support to CSOs that monitor compliance with international human rights standards in Turkey and carry out monitoring-based advocacy activities based on their needs and demands. ETKİNİZ, mainly aims to increase already existing expertise of CSOs. External expert support will also be available when this expertise is not available within the organisation.

2. Who Can Apply?

To benefit from ETKİNİZ Support, the main requirement is to be a civil society organisation (CSO) in the protection and promotion of human rights and officially registered in Turkey. The CSO should belong to one of the below categories:

• Association
• Foundation
• Non-profit cooperative
• Civil society networks and platform (These initiatives have to be represented by a CSO with a legal basis)
• Civil initiative, community, network (These initiatives have to be represented by a CSO with a legal basis)
• Union
• Bar association
• Professional organisation

[1] Human rights issues are constantly expanding and evolving. We share some example areas below, but we are welcome support requests in areas not listed here: women's rights, children's rights, youth rights, rights of persons with disabilities, rights of minorities and ethnic groups, rights of lesbian-gay-bisexual-transsexual-intersex individuals, refugee-immigrant rights, rights of displaced persons, stateless persons, indigenous peoples 'rights, elderly rights, workers' rights, victim rights, environmental rights, protection of human rights defenders, prevention of discrimination, fair trial, economic and social cultural rights.

Organisations that complete the registration process to ETKİNİZ and receive a username and password can start applying for support!

3. What are ETKİNİZ Support Categories?

ETKİNİZ provides support under two main categories:

I.   Human Rights Monitoring Support
II. Access to International Human Rights Mechanisms Support

I. Human Rights Monitoring (HRM) Support

Human Rights Monitoring support will help new and existing civil monitoring initiatives, including actions aiming at improving human rights monitoring based on international human rights framework. In this regard, this support will enable CSOs to design and implement their own actions with the support by ETKİNİZ.

a. What Can You Do with Human Rights Monitoring Support?

- Strengthen your monitoring efforts with international human rights standards,
- Create a strategic basis for your monitoring efforts,
- Identify key indicators for your monitoring efforts,
- Collecting and verifying data on your research topic,
- Converting the collected data into statistical information,
- Read and interpret existing data given in other studies in this field,
- Issue internationally recognized monitoring reports according to your results,
- Disseminate your findings and reports, and broaden outreach,
- For this purpose, publish your results in easily understandable formats such as video or visual information,
- Carrying out campaigns and lobbying activities related to your results,
- Engage in dialogue and establish partnership with organisations operating in similar fields and develop key strategies,
- Reach the public through press and media activities,
- Share your work with public managers,
- Participate in webinars on the internet or request webinar trainings for urgent training needs,
- Request trainings for your needs,
- Come together with different organisations, institutions and establishments to engage in dialogue for your human rights monitoring and advocacy activities,
- Request guiding experts to support long-term capacity building and work together in your monitoring processes, or
- For other issues related to human rights monitoring that we cannot think about, CSOs can get support.

We will also organize forums and capacity building trainings to improve the monitoring and advocacy capacities of civil society organizations within the scope of the ETKİNİZ EU Programme. We will also announce forums and capacity building trainings on our website and social media accounts.

5. What You Should Know Before Requesting for Support?

ETKİNİZ is not a grant programme, but an in-kind financial support programme. Therefore, support is provided in kind, not in cash.

The payment of all budget items within the scope of the request is made by ETKİNİZ to suppliers. Logistic adjustments within the work are made by the Technical Assistance Team in line with the suggestions and preferences of the applicant. ETKİNİZ plays a supporting and facilitating role in this process and makes payments to suppliers/third parties.

Support requests to ETKİNİZ are evaluated on a monthly basis. All the support requests made in each month will be evaluated by ETKİNİZ Support Team in the order of support request date. The results of the support requests made until the 25th of each month will be announced latest by the 25th of the following month at the. For example, all support requests submitted from 3 until 25 July are evaluated in the order of support request and the results are announced by 25 August the latest. A new support request period starts after the 25th of each month.

As long as the resources are sufficient and ETKİNİZ Technical Assistance Team's implementation capacity is not exceeded, ETKİNİZ Support is always open for support request.

The maximum amount of support for each category is EUR 3,000. ETKİNİZ may exceptionally increase the amount of support in kind by 50 percent. ETKİNİZ never transfers cash but only covers relevant expenses.

ETKİNİZ Technical Assistance Team assesses justified requests of CSOs in special conditions (increasing needs due to the changes in political agenda, extra costs needed to achieve the purpose of the work, etc.) for 50 percent of increase to the maximum amount of EUR 3,000.

Each CSO may apply more than once, but an organization may only receive in kind support equal to maximum EUR 12,000. Additional information is given to the supported works. The activities planned within the support request must start within maximum 6 months from the date of support request.

Support requests involving academic, commercial, political activities, for-profit works and scholarship requests are not eligible. Outputs of the works cannot include personal or political interests.

If necessary, ETKİNİZ Technical Assistance Team will provide guidance to improve the support request.

The compliance check is carried out in two stages. In the first stage, TAT will check if the support request is made by a CSO related to HRM and the support request relates to the international rights standards and norms. Following the verification of compliance with these 2 criteria, TAT will further evaluate the compliance of the support request.

In the second stage, ETKİNİZ Technical Assistance Team evaluate the compliance of the support requests considering the below compliance criteria.

	COMPLIANCE CRITERIA
	DETERMINING CRITERIA
1	Does the support request involve a direct link with international human rights mechanisms such as communication, submission, reporting, etc. (in particular, the United Nations human rights committees)?
2	Are the objectives and outputs of the support request measurable?
3	Does the support request focus on making a good impact and improving human rights? Is there any potential for local or national change?
4	Does it prioritize silent groups in difficult conditions? Does it give importance not to discriminate or create discrimination? Does it promote gender equality?
5	Does it engage relevant right holders, other relevant and efficient stakeholders? Are the methods used for engagement relevant, effective, efficient and sustainable? What are the suggested methods for accountability and transparency to the right holders and other stakeholders? Are they sufficient for right holders to seek their own rights?
6	Does it include any measures to protect right holders?
7	Does it offer a sustainable and lasting impact after implementation?
	SUPPORTING CRITERIA
1	Is the requested budget amount of 3,000 Euros or less?
2	Do the requested budget items coincide with the work activities?
3	Is the price / benefit relationship between the requested budget items and amount and the planned results strong?

- Compliant: Support requests that comply with at least 5 of the determining criteria will be accepted and TAT will communicate with the applicants to ensure that the supporting criteria are also met.
- Incomplete: To ensure that all support requests provide at least 5 of the determining criteria and all of the supporting criteria, the ETKİNİZ TAT may contact the applicants to work together on improving the support request.
- Non-compliant: The support request will be considered non-compliant unless it complies with at least 2 criteria of each level.

During the compliance check process, ETKİNİZ Technical Assistance Team may request additional documents and information from CSOs about their activities.

ETKİNİZ team gives special importance to ensure that the support request process and provision of support is conducted without creating a competitive environment between civil society organisations. So, if you have an idea that can be effective for human rights monitoring, our team is always ready to assist you in the support request process. You can contact ETKİNİZ Support Desk for any questions about the support requests.

Support requests are submitted until midnight on the 25th of each month and compliance checks are finalized on the 25th of the following month at the latest. ETKİNİZ Technical Assistance Team will contact CSOs within 7 days to provide information about their support requests. ETKİNİZ TAT might change these conditions for support requests during the lifespan of the programme and the changes are announced on ETKİNİZ website and social media without affecting the implementations.

The support request language is Turkish. Support requests can be made both in Arabic and Kurdish. Since our information system is prepared only in Turkish, if you want to apply in Arabic and Kurdish languages, you can send your request to destek@etkiniz.eu. The results of the support requests are announced through the Information System. The applicant has right to object the compliance check result of his support request. You can send an e-mail to destek@etkiniz.eu to make an objection.

If your support request is considered as incomplete by ETKİNİZ Technical Assistance Team and returned with change, you can complete the requested changes within the support request period (25th of each month) and maintain the same support request order, and the compliance check for the support request will be conducted again. Those who cannot reapply within this period can make their support requests for the next period and take part in the order of that period.

CSOs whose support requests are evaluated as non-compliant can contact ETKİNİZ Support Desk (destek@etkiniz.eu) to get feedback on their work.

ETKİNİZ Technical Assistance Team will follow up the budget allocated to the program and implementation capacity; accordingly has the right to take necessary measures and make modifications on the support categories and upper in-kind financial support limits, when necessary. As long as the resources are sufficient and ETKİNİZ Technical Assistance Team's implementation capacity is not exceeded, ETKİNİZ Support will be open to requests until the end of the program.
